Ise Shrine Visiting

Saturday, 04 February 2023
Depart: 0200/Return: 2100

NEW

Ise Shrine is the generic name of Kotajingu (Naigu) which the top god of Shinto, Amaterasu Omikami (Gegu) is enshrined and Toyoukedajingu which the god preparing meal for Amaterasu Omikami is enshrined. Amaterasu Omikami is considered as the ancestor of imperial families and only allowed to visit there by the official order from the emperor in ancient time. After Kamakura period (1185-1333), it opened to the public and "Oisemairi", visiting Ise Shrine became one of the big life event for the people of those days. Before visiting Ise shrine, we will stop by Futamiura Beach where the ancient worship visitors purify their body prior to go to Ise Shrine. We will visit Gegu, then Naigu. There is the shopping/restaurant district in front of Naigu. Enjoy lunch, souvenir hunting and historical scenery.
